

Prof Dr Dicle Guc, graduated from Ankara University, Medical Faculty in June 1986. She obtained her Ph.D. degree, from Glasgow University and Beatson Cancer Institute, Scotland in June 1993. Upon return to Turkey, she worked at Hacettepe University, Cancer Institute, Department of Basic Oncology as a faculty member. She involved research studies at 1994 in Hopital Cochin and Hopital St. Louis, Paris, France and Cardiff University Medical Faculty Cardiff, Wales. She later worked as a Deputy Director at Hacettepe University Cancer Institute in between 2009-2012 and Director of Basic Oncology Department 2010-2014. She received Ezcibasi Junior Doctor Research Award at 1996 and Turkish Scientific and Technical Research Council Junior Doctor Research Award at 2000. She received “The Teaching Staff Who Create Difference in the Education” in Hacettepe University at 2016. She was retired from Hacettepe University at 2018.

Her work focused on tumor immunology, tumor microenvironment, immunotherapies and the Complement System.